After a decade of hunting zombies, the dead man walking ends after the season 11, AMC confirmed Wednesday 9 September (via Hollywood Reporter). But only because the show coming to the end does not mean that the franchise is over. Sad as this news could be for fans, there is a silver coating – two other spinoffs are already in the works. In fact, one of the spinoffs has already been ordered to the series of amc.butt, before reaching the spinners, the final season of the dead walking will be characterized by 24 episodes, instead of the traditional 16. Furthermore, the season will extend actually two years . With the first 12 episodes that are broadcast in 2021 and the final dozen in 2022. (and this assuming that they are able to resume production in season 10 soon). So the fans will not have to worry about saying goodbye to their apocalypse Preferred zombies until 2022 as possible. For the spines, a revolving drama around BFFS Daryl (Norman Reedus) and Carol (Melissa McBride) replaces a direct order to standard. The project is currently uncommon, but it is expected to premiere of 2023. The Spinoff was created by Chief Content Officer Scott M. Gimple and The Drama's Showrunner Angela Kang, who will continue his head role on the spinoff. The Gimple also develops a series of scripted anthology episodes called "The Walking Dead, which includes new or returning actors from the main series. The second spinoff is the comic book series "Fear the Walking Dead," which is set in the same world as the original series, but takes place in a different time period. It is currently in development for a fall 2021 release.

The family for me in the last decade," said Reedus in a statement obtained from Bythill, before adding the spinoff, the "Daryl" report with "Carol and I have always been my favorite report on the show (sorry, rick). I love the way these characters interact and refer to each other about so many levels and will not be able to wait to see where their run from here goes." McBride feels the same way. She released a statement that says she is "always liked to work so closely with Norman" and "she can't wait for Daryl and Carol to arrive." Their shared history is long, and every personal fight of each to survive, even longer - the most obvious aspect of what has kept them close and loyal, "said McBride." But there is also a rather mysterious aspect of their passion to one another that I like, and their playfulness when the world allows it. I'm very curious! "The dead on foot could end after the season 11, but Carol and Daryl continue to survive after all this time. Continue with the last daily buzz newsletter with BuzzFeed's daily newsletter! Continue with the last daily buzz with The Buzzfeed Daily Newsletter! Full of great characters, meat meat zombies and combat stories for survival, is not surprising that AMC and board of your seat excitement, there are still some things that many fans may not know about this guilty pleasure. Here are five Surprising facts on the dead walk. 1. Many of the actors take aboard the zombie school where they learn how to be the perfect A c a ~ Walker "perfect". The actors are ranked on looks and performance before getting green Being on the screen 3. AMC paid tribute to break bad with Met Meth blue in the season 1 Breaking Bad [AMC if you happened to note that the stock market of the markers contained a bit of blue meth, do not imagine things. In the season 1, AMC gave a nod to a nod of another popular show on their network, breaking badly, having Daryl holds a bag of the drug serving of his brother full of white Walter A c a ~ A c a ~ A c a ~. In addition, AMC used ... The same Dodge Challenger that Glen stole in season 1 on the break of the season Bad 4 as the car Walker bought for Walt Jr. 4. The show is based on a Graphic novel, but does not keep faithful to Carl in the novel Dead graphic on foot | Image Comics The Series The Walking Dead is based on Robert Kirkman's graphic novel (which is also a soap producer.) But although many of the names And the characters settings are the same, some of the show points of the show are changed, especially when it comes to violence and the people alive. There are also several characters on the TV series that do not exist in the comic books. 5. The show has a fan favorite! Rick Dixon, 5'8", is a cartoonist A c a ~ mentioned once Ken Finklestein interviewed through the show's producers. Concerned about the zombie school, he did not come to the meeting, so he had said that the show would be a zombie school. He decided to enter the comic world without the zombie school, and he made the connection that the familiarity together with. Since they have never seen or heard of zombies before, they would naturally call them something else. Furthermore, the show has never addressed the cause of the outbreak A c a ~ A c a ~ "Zombie Virus" and includes. Check out Entertainment Cheat sheet on Facebook! A Zombies on the Walk Dead | AMC If you asked the middle fan a Feet that the stars that the stars of the series of shots are, are probably able to fight at least some names: Andrew Lincoln, Norman Reedus, Steven Yuen, Lauren Cohen, Danai Gurai. The talented ensemble in the center of the horror of the center of AMC helped the show to become a breakout success on the last six seasons. They also made names for themselves, and have become some of the most recognizable faces on television. But few of us ever think about the other stars of the series - those who hide Rick, Daryl and the rest of them on the run. A «Reto the walkers: stone decrepit creatures zombies that close the timber after the characters of the series in almost all the individual episodes. Walking Dead Zombies | AMC according to the EF series Fect Effect Director. A c Greg Nicotero, takes a tremendous quantity of efforts to give life to those zombies to life A c a ~ ~ER, for all non-mortal life, however. And sometimes there are more than 60 zombies on the set, everyone works together to create a convincing post-mortem. The answer is a bit complicated. Getting zombified is actually a lot of work for the dead on foot | AMC probably not remained a surprise to hear "you can't walk on the set of the dead walking and become a zombie. To win an extra role, the actors send quilt A c a ~ ~ Professional entertainment photos A c a ~ ~ "Up to the Casting Director series and wait to find out if they can be increased. Once that first obstacle pass, attend what Nicotero calls Zombie School. It is a laboratory in which the They are taught to Hiss, snarl, and stagger as a true person not dead. Looks funny, right? Most experts affirm that it is; and if an actor makes the cut, they will be launched and called the series - set in Atlanta. But there is even more work to be done before an extra can take a step in front of the fronto walk for dead cameras. We are a laboratory for costumes and sitting for hair and makeup A c a ~ ~ a process that can take several hours, depending on how much a severely zombified actor is supposed. The Walking Dead | AMC many extras have reported that the most part Difficult to their work on the dead walking was the long hours under the warm sun of Georgia. As a general rule, the extras are asked to be set for at least one whole day job - eight hours or more in some cases. Although they are lucky few were chosen to be A c a ~ «extra» extras, ie, interact with the main characters or do something particularly interesting. The salary for the extras is not very high, but it is not too low either. AMC pays the extras $100 per day, plus travel expenses. However, the extras are not paid for the first day of the shoot. This means that the extras must be prepared to work for free for the first day of the shoot. One of the undead, salary may not even be that consideration. But for those who are really curious: some actors who have done it successfully as zombies on the show that gave some intuition of how much their walking companions can expect to be paid. During a reddit Love 2011, a former extra zombie gave a perspective of an insider. He said to walk the fans of the dead that he was on set for two days and earned about $ 600, as well as a bonus at the end of the year. Another extra told Reddit users in 2014 that the pay base for extra zombie was $ 64 for eight hours of work, as well as if I was not a dunt. So it goes in some way to say that there is a bit of an interval regarding the rate to go for the dead dead on foot ~ not dead A c a ~ ~ and assuming an additional role in the series of shots , probably is not to make you go rich. But if you love the dead who walks and have some time more time, it could still be worth your time. Follow Katherine Webb on Twitter @Prufox Check out Entertainment Cheat Sheet on Facebook!
