Spanish nouns that start with j

A plural noun indicates that there is more than one of that noun (while a singular noun indicates that there is only one of the nouns). Most plural forms are created simply by adding a -s or -es at the end of the singular word. For example, there is a dog (singular,) but three dogs (plural.) However, English has regular and irregular nouns. Regular plurals follow this rule (and other similar rules,) but irregular plurals are, well, not regular and do not follow a "standard" rule. Let's start with regular plurals: Regular plural nouns use the established patterns to indicate that there is more than one thing. Recognize the nouns marked with plural form -s. As mentioned above, we add the plural suffix -s to most words: cat → cats bring → zebra → zebra However, after sounds s, z, sh, ch, and j, we add the plural suffix -es: class → sash classes → sashes fox → fox Some words that end up z also doubling their final consonant, as quizzes. Do you know how to pronounce plurals for the following words? Single Plural Single Plural book fishing chair buzz image watch after letter or. We also add the plural suffix -es to most of the words that end in or: potato hero → mosquito heroes → mosquitoes However, when the words have a foreign origin (eg, Greek, Spanish,) just add the plural suffix -taco → avocados master → While we do not expect to know what words have a foreign origin, knowing some common words (know) And remember, if you are always in doubt, the dictionary is there for you! What are the correct plurals for the following words? Singular Plural Singular Plural personal portfolio veto memo echo radio avocado zero study path When a word ends in you and there is a consonant before you, we change y a i and we add -es. sky → candy skies → lady candy → ladies However, if y follows another vowel, it is enough to add a -s. alloy → donkeys day → What are the correct plurals for the following words? Singular Plural Singular Power Key Plural fly play ally boy When a word ends in -f or -fe, we change f a v and we add -es. leaf → leaves the life → lives the calf → calves However, if there are two terminals fs or if still pronounce the f to plural, then it simply adds a -s: reef → reefs head → head reefs What are the correct plurals for the following words? Singular Plural Singular Plural wolf car sheaf roof knife thief When it comes to positive words starting with J, you have reached the jewel of the crown.
