Example of god's creation

Example of god's creation

What are god's creation. What does god's creation mean. Example of analogies related to god and his creation.

How many times do you recognize the second person of the Trinity in prayer? God the Son Jesus Christ became the propitiation for our sins. He has redeemed us with His own blood and is worthy of all our selves. In the Old and New Testaments there are many passages pointing to the love of Jesus. We make our goal to find His love in every chapter of the Bible. He cites the love of Christ aThe Gospel is the only story in which the hero dies for the wickeda. aJesus Christ knows the worst of you. However, He is the one who loves you the most". A.W. John Chrysostom "I always thought love was shaped like a heart, but it is actually shaped like a cross". His side was pierced when God pierced when God pierced the bride of Adam came on her own. His bride was more precious to him because she came from his flesh. The second Adam Jesus Christ also had his side pierced. Don't you see the correlation? The bride of Christ (the Church) came from her blood-stained side. He took on a brutal beat that we'll never be able to fathom. His side was pierced because of how much He loves you. 1. Genesis 2:20-23 "Thus man gave names to all the wild animals. But no suitable helper was found for Adam. 21 So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he slept, he took one of the man's ribs, and closed the place with the flesh. 22 And the Lord God made a woman out of the rib which he had taken from the man, and brought her to the man. 23 And the man said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken away from man. 2. John 19:34 "But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately there came out blood and water". Christ took away your shame In the garden Adam and Eve were not ashamed while they were both naked. Sin had not yet entered the world. However, this would soon change when disobeying God and eating the forbidden fruit. Their state of innocence has been carved. Now they were both fallen, naked and full of guilt and shame. Before they went down, they didn't need cover, but now they have. By His grace, God provided the cover needed to remove their shame. Notice what the second Adam does. He took the guilt and shame that Adam felt in the Garden of Eden. Jesus bore His shameful nakedness hung naked on the cross. Again, do you see the correlation? Jesus took all the guilt and shame we faith, which for the joy that was placed in front of him has endured the Cross, despised the shame, and is placed on the right of the throne of God. $\hat{a} \in 4$. On the left you have Barabbas which was a well-known criminal. He was a bad boy. He was one of those guys who should not hang around because they are bad news. On the right you have Jesus. Ponzio Pilate said that Jesus was not guilty of any crime. He didn't do anything wrong. The crowd had the choice to put one of the free men. Shot, the crowd should have been treated and Jesus would then be crucified. This story is ruined! Barabba was treated and Jesus would then be crucified. This story is ruined! Barabba was treated and Jesus would then be crucified. Even if Jesus was innocent he brought the pity that you and I rightly deserve. We deserve the sentence, but because of Christ we are free of God's condemnation and the wrath of God. He took the wrath of God, so we wouldn't have to. For some reason we try to return to those chains. However, on the cross Jesus said: â € œThe finishedâ €. He's love of him paid everything! Don't go back to those guilt and shame chains. He freed you and there is nothing you can do to repay it! With blood of him, wicked can be released. In this story we see a great example of grace. Love is intentional. Christ has proved to him love him for us taking our place on the Cross. 6. Luke 23: 15-22 Â Nean thing was Herod, because he sent him to us. Look, there is nothing that deserves death from him. Romans 4:25 He was delivered up to death for our transgressions, and was raised up to life for our justification. - 11. 1 Peter 1: 18-19 a ¬ "To know that it was not with perishable things like silver or gold You were redeemed from the empty way of life handed down by your forefathers, 19 but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without defects or defects. - 12. 2 Corinthians 5:21 a ¬ ÅGoD did it He knew that no sin is sin on our behalf, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God. "Jesus became a curse for you. We learn in deuteronomy that those who hang themselves on a tree are accredited by God. Disobedience at any point of God's law results in a curse. innocent. The only person who can remove the law is the curse, the one who bore the curse so that we would be free from the curse. Christ has paid our debt of sin in full. Glory to God! Hanging on a tree is seen during Scripture. When Jesus hangs on a tree he not only becomes an image of evil. When the wicked Absalom is hung from an oak tree and is subsequently pierced by the side with a spear, that is a prefiguration of Christ and the Cross. There is something else that is remarkable about the story of Absalom. Though he was a wicked man, he was also very much loved by his father. In Esther we see the contempt Hamon had for Mordecai. He ended up building a tree-shaped 50 cubits that was meant for another person (Mordecai). Ironically, Hamon was later hung from a tree that was meant for someone else. Don't you see Christ in this story? Jesus is hanging from a tree that was meant for us. 13. Deuteronomy 21: 22-23 is a ""If a man has committed a sin worthy of death and he is put to death, and hang him on a tree, his body shall not hang all night on the tree, but you surely bury him the same day (for Abraham could Come to the Gentiles, so that we would receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. 15. *13-14 †"When you died in your sins, 14 having cancelled the charge of our legal indebtedness, which he stood against us and condemned us; He took him away, nailing him to the cross. - Matthew 20:28 at "Abbastance as the son of man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for Many. The prophetic history of Hosea and Gomera The feel if God told you to marry the worst of the worst? That's what he told Hosea to do. This is a picture of what Christ entered the worst and dangerous areas to find his bride. Christ went to a place where other men did not go to find his bride. bride. He said: "I find her... God told him to love a former prostitute who married and returned to prostitution after she was given so much grace. Hosea went to a bad neighborhood full of thugs and wicked people to look for his bride. He eventually found his bride, but he was told that he would not be given to him without a price. Although that Hosea was still married to her, it was now someone else's property. He had to buy it for a price that was expensive for him. This is Asinine! He's already his wife! Hosea bought his bride who was not worthy of his love, his favor, such a great price. Hosea bought his bride who was not worthy of his love. Similarly, for some reason it is difficult for us to accept the love of Christ. We think his love is conditional and we can't understand how he would love us in our casino. Just like Gomer we start looking for love in all the wrong places. Instead, that leaves us broken. In the midst of our fracture and our god infidelity never stopped loving us. Instead, he bought us. There is so much love in the history of Hosea and Gomer. God is already owns us. This is why it is even more stunning that paid the heavy price for the people he already owns. We were saved from the blood of Christ. We were destined for chains but Christ gave us free. Imagine the Gomerthinking in her mind while he is buying her while she is in a situation he caused. At his own infidelta he was chained, slave, dirty, despised, etc. It would be difficult for a man to love a woman who made him suffer so much. Gomer looked at her husband thinking: "Why do you love me so much?" Gomer was a disaster just like we are a disaster, but our osea loved us and took our shame on the Cross. This beautiful love story is what we forces us to do the will of God. 18. Osea 1: 2-3 Â & œWe the Lord began to speak through Osea, the Lord said to him: Â «VÃ, Bride a promiscuous to do the will of God. 18. Osea 1: 2-3 A & extended to him: A «VÃ, Bride a promiscuous to do the will of God. 18. Osea 1: 2-3 A & extended to him: A «VÃ, Bride a promiscuous to him: A «VÃ, Brid woman and do "children with her; Since, like an adulteress wife, this country is quilty of infideltà to the Lord. â € "Married Gomer, Diblaim's daughter, who conceived and gave birth to a son. The Lord said to Osea: Â «Call it IzreÃ"], because soon punished the IEU's house for the massacre of IzreÃ" le I will disappear the kingdom of Israel. â € âsa 3: 1-4 Å« The Lord told me: "Go," shows your love again to your wife, who loved by another man and is adulterous. 2 So I bought it for fifteen seals of silver, about a omer and a barley Leteco. 3 I told her: Å «You will stay with me for many days; You don't have to prostitute you, nor to have relationships with any man, and I said: 4 As the Israelites will live many days without king and without prince, without sacred stones, without sacred stones, without eFOD and without domestic divinities. The 20. 1 Corinthians 7:23 Â «You have been bought at a high price; Do not become slaves of men. We cannot add anything to the fact that of Christ. Salvation is for grace through faith in Christ. However, when we see how far we were away from God and the great price paid for us, forces us to confialy. Him love for you in Christ Jesus, you want to be obedient to him. You won't want to take advantage of him love of him. Our hearts have been transformed and overwhelmed by so much grace, so much love and lots of freedom by Christ, which we willingly offer us to God. We were regenerated by the power of the Holy Spirit and went to conflict it and want to honor it with our life. It doesn't mean it's not a fight. This does not mean that sometimes we will not be fascinated by other things. However, we will see the proof of God who works in our lives and makes us grow in the things of God. On 21. 2 Corinthians 5: 14-15 Å «Since the love of Christ forces us, convinced that one is only one is Dead for everyone, and therefore everyone, and therefore everyone died. 15 And he died for everyone, so that those who live do not live more for themselves, but for the one who died for them and resurrected. "Galatians 2:20 Å« I was crucified Christ, and I don't live anymore, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, alive by faith in the son of God, who loved me and has abandoned me for me.a € 23. Romans 6: 1-2 â € œWhat will we tell then? Do we continue to sin to increase grace? For nothing! We are those who died for sin; How can we live longer? A ». Have you ever been rejected by the world. Now imagine you are rejected by the world you have created. Not only was Christ be rejected by the world, he felt rejected by him. Jesus knows how you feel. We have a high priest who sympathizes with our weaknesses. He understands how you feel. Whatever the problem that you can deal with Christ has experienced a similar situation to him. He understands and knows how to help you or better know how to love you in your situation. 24. Isaiah 53: 3 â € œAlli was despised and rejected by humanity, men of suffering and familiar pain. As one from which people hide their faces, he was despised and rejected by humanity, men of suffering and familiar pain. Christ when we are concerned about other things. Think about it! How can you experience someone's love when he neglects them? It's not that their love for you has changed, it's that you have been too busy with other things to note. Our eyes are easily submerged by things that are not intrinsically bad. However, they bring our heart away from Christ and becomes more difficult to feel the presence of him and experiencing the love of him. There are so many special things that he wants to help you realize him love for you. He wants to lead you to prayer. He wants to tell us, but are we willing to silence to listen to it? He wants to help you can experience the love of him in this way, but unfortunately we come to him with our own program. I believe that most Christians do not disperse everything that God wants to give us in prayer. We are so committed to trying to give him our petitions that we miss on him, who he is, the love of him, and the great price that was paid for us. If you want to experience the love of Christ more deeply there are things that will have to go. It is necessary to reduce TV, youtube, video games, etc. Instead, he enters the Bible and seeks Christ. Let him tell you in the word. The study of the daily Bible will propose your life of prayer. Do you understand the reason for your worship? It is so easy to say yes, but really think of this! Do you focus on the object of your worship? When we really see Christ for those who are truly our adoration towards rejuvenated. Pray that you have greater realization towards rejuvenated. Pray that you have greater realization towards rejuvenated. and on earth. 16 I pray that he will strengthen you with the power of the spirit of him in your underwear, 17 for Christ to be dressed in your hearts by faith. And I pray that you, rooted and balances in love, 18 have power, along with all the Holy people of the Lord, to understand how vast, long, high and profound the love of Christ, 19 and to know Thissed in your hearts by faith. love that overtakes every knowledge, so that you are filled with all the fullness of God. Writing this article, but a thing I understand is that I still find it hard to understanding. It's a fight for me that sometimes leaves me in tears. The extraordinary thing is that I know that even in my fight he loves me. He doesn't get tired of me and doesn't give up with me. He can't stop loving myself. It is what it is'!
