Sun outdoors cape may

Site 41. Nice shaded, level site with stone. Small grassy area between sites. Clean and close together, but not too close. They have activities and golf cart rentals, neither of which we took advantage of. Seems like a lot of seasonal trailers but everything is kept nice and relatively new. Check... Police received a 911 call at 9:27pm on Saturday night from the Sun Outdoors Cape May campground, in Lower Township, near the southern tip of the New Jersey peninsula. They arrived to find the 3-year-old 'unresponsive' after she had been pulled from a sewage septic tank on the campsite. The girl was taken to the Cape Regional Medical Center where she was pronounced dead later that evening. Andrew DeLong, regional vice president at Sun Communities & Sun RV Resorts, said the girl's death was a 'devastating accident'. A 3-year-old girl has died after falling into a septic tank at the Sun Outdoors Cape May campground on the Jersey Shore on Saturday night Detectives from the Lower Township Police Department are investigating the girl's death, and say it appears to be an accident involving a child that occurred last night at our campground in Cape May, and first we wish to express our heartfelt condolences to the family as they face this incredibly difficult time, said Delong. This was a devastating accident, and our thoughts are with the family as they face this incredibly difficult time, said Delong. This was a devastating accident, and our thoughts are with the family as they face this incredibly difficult time, said Delong. Jeffrey H. Sutherland and Chief William Priole of the Lower Township Police Department said detectives who responded to the incident had started an investigation into this child's death. The Sun Outdoors Cape May Campground offers campsites, RV sites and vacation rental cabins in Cape May County on the Jersey ShoreAn autopsy was completed on Sunday morning by the Southern Regional Medical Examiner's Office. Sutherland said while the incident was still under investigation, it appeared to be an accident. The Sun Outdoors Cape May website says it offers campsites, RV sites and vacation rental cabins. MENU
