Introduction: Trees are our best friend. Our life and existence on earth depend greatly on trees. Trees give us food and shelter. They make our soil fertile. They save the land from erosion. Trees give us oxigen and keep our environment balanced. So trees are, as such, part and parcel of our life.

Uses of trees: The most important thing that we get from trees is oxygen. We inhale oxygen from the air which is provided by trees. Trees maintain the ecology of a country. They help to cause rainfall and thus save our country from deforestation. We get our major food products from trees. We get our clothing materials also from trees. Rural houses are made of trees. We get our furniture from wood. Many life-saving drugs are also made from trees. Trees give us so many things that we cannot think even for a single moment without trees.

Time and place of plantation: Trees can be planted all year-round, but the rainy season is suitable for planting trees. We can plant trees in the vacant places of our houses, offices, schools, colleges, and hospitals. Sea beaches and low-lying areas can be brought under the scheme of adforestation with special types of tree suited to the soil. Shady trees and fruit trees can be planted on either side of the roads and highways. Trees may be planted on all sides of ponds and "dights' in the villages.

Importance of planting trees: We need trees for different purposes. Trees give us food and shelter. They make the land fortile. They save the land from erosion. We get timber from trees. This timber is used in making bouses, Boats, ships, and furniture, etc. They save the house from a cyclone. They also give shade to protect us from the scorching heat of the sun.

Importance of trees in nature: Trees are things of beauty too. The green rows of trees in the fore of our eyes, Trees are essential to human life. Our environment is polluting every day, respectively and the minute of the sun.

Seps and initiatives to be taken: Illiterate people or the villages of our country are not aware of the i

Trees are vital to this planet as they provide oxygen, absorb carbon dioxide, stabilise the soil and give life to the world's wildlife. They also provide us with materials for tools and shelter. Despite their importance, human beings are reducing them for their earthly needs. This has to be minimized because our life is not possible without trees. Instead of cutting them down, we should grow more trees. People need to be educated about the importance of trees and do their part to protect existing trees and plant more. Frequent awareness-raising campaigns are needed around the world for those who are aware. Slogans about planting trees can motivate people to plant more trees. In the past, we shared
